

INTIMATE CONVERSATION GUIDE

In this exercise there is a Listener and a Speaker. It is the Listener's job to ask the questions, validate the speaker and follow the directions listed below. It is the Speaker's job to increase their self-awareness in sharing and avoid using blaming or general statements and words such as Always, Never, You, and But. Stick with "I" or "we" Statements.

Give both individuals a chance to be the Speaker and the Listener with each other.

This is a revised version of the Comfort Circle Guide originally created by Milan and Kay Yerkovich

1. Conversation Prompt: What is one thing stressing, concerning or causing you to have feelings? [Repeat back or summarize: "I hear you saying that..."]

2. Emotions Being Experienced: Using the Emotions Table, what are the top three emotions you have regarding this? Try to use emotions from more than one category if possible (bolded words are the categories).

3. Rate These Emotions: Rate the level of intensity of each of these feelings, from 1 (low) to 10 (high). How often have you felt this way?
[Summarize and Repeat Back Questions 1-3, and Validate]

Remember: As the listener your job is to validate the speaker and gain a better understanding of the speaker's emotions and behaviors. Emotions are never right or wrong even though you may not agree with or understand why the speaker is feeling this way. Try to be understanding and put yourself into the speaker's shoes for a minute. The goal is to learn to listen rather than reacting or trying to think of a rebuttal or solution.

4. Physical Sensations: Do you notice any pressure or tension in your body when you feel this way? Does it impact your breathing at all?

5. How Did You Act or Behave: When you have these feelings, what are your behaviors or actions? How did you respond?

6. What Happened Next: After responding that way, what happened next? What was the consequence? [Summarize/Repeat Back 4-6, Validate]

7. Childhood Experiences:

- a. Do you remember experiencing similar feelings or being in a similar situation as a child?
[If the answer is "no," skip to question #10]
- b. If yes, what happened and how old were you?
- c. How did you handle these feelings as a child? (behaviors, reactions, emotions, coping methods) [Summarize , Validate]

8. Childhood Experiences and Now: How similar are the experiences, behaviors, reactions and emotions you had as a child to what you are experiencing now?

9. Beliefs: Did these childhood experiences cause you to form any beliefs about yourself, others, or God? [Summarize , Validate Feelings]

10. What Do You Need: When you are feeling this way what can I do to help?

EXAMPLES OF NEEDS: an apology, changed behavior, being heard, taking ownership, reassurance, negotiation, comfort, problem solving, agreeing to disagree.

11. Response: Summarize and repeat back the request along with what you are able and willing to do. Be honest! Don't make promises you cannot keep.

"I hear you saying that you feel ___ and you need ___, and here's what I can do..."
